Fiona

Hi, I'm Fiona - Claire's less crazy sister. And more smart. And just better to be honest. My sister is so loud and so annoying. Sometimes, I just want to sit in peace and get all my homework done. I'm a straight A student you see. I got 130 in my AQE...Claire won't have a chance!

(pause) It just really annoys me when Claire just sits and moans and says that Mum and Dad favour me over her and that she gets left out. I mean, can you blame Mum and Dad? She's just so loud and obnoxious. We actually probably argue every day. She always says something I disagree with, I get so infuriated, I get so warm, I get so wound up, I throw my homework onto the floor and then BAM out of nowhere, we're shouting at each-other. I'm sure you've been in that situation before, right? How did you feel?
