Toby

You will never guess what! Mikey from my class just told me that he was sucked into this zoom game called 'Zoomanji' where he had to complete some challenges in order to be set free. But he wasn't alone...Betty, Emily, Claire and Charlotte went too and somehow Mr Robinson was there or 'Mr Nosnibor' as he likes to call himself. I don't know if I believe Mikey...he might just have had a very very strange dream. But I would like to ask them all a few questions to investigate what really happened on this so-called adventure. I'll let you know what I find out!
